Cabin at the George Rogers Clark Homesite Open to Visitors

WHEN: May through October the cabin will be open Friday, Saturday & Sunday, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m..

WHERE: Harrison Avenue, Clarksville, Indiana

WHAT: The George Rogers Clark Homesite is a 9 acre park overlooking the Ohio River. A cabin, similar to the one General George Rogers Clark lived in from 1802 to 1809, was constructed there in 2001 and furnished with an extensive collection of period items.

Interpreters will be available to share the history of General Clark and the beginning of the town of Clarksville.

In addition to the cabin, the park has a picnic area and a boat ramp.

The Clark Homesite is part of the Falls of the Ohio State Park. For more information, and to make group reservations, please call (812) 280-9970.
